VELLUTO

Shhh... can you feel it?

I am Velluto.

I was born in the palaces of Genoa, Venice, and Florence, when velvet was more than a fabric — it was a masterpiece.

Woven through a unique process, velvet became the symbol of luxury: soft as a whisper, powerful enough to dress emperors and queens.

Today, I am that same masterpiece, reborn as jewelry.

Gold is my fabric, light is my texture, and every cage-like detail carries the rhythm of velvet's creation —intricate, magnetic, unforgettable.

On your skin, I'm not just seen — I'm felt.

I am confidence, presence, emotion.

I am Velluto — timeless beauty with a pulse, alive in every moment.
