BLACK LINE

Black Line, a selection of jewelry that redefines luxury and sophistication in the masculine universe. Each creation of this exclusive line has been meticulously designed to enhance the essence of contemporary elegance and inner strength. Its creations combine the various colors of gold with the intensity of diamonds and other precious stones. Every detail has been carefully considered to create unique and timeless pieces that stand out for their style and the originality of their designs.

This collection is more than a mere manifestation of luxury; it is a statement of character. From rings and bracelets to pendants and cufflinks, each design from Black Line has been created to enhance the personality and magnetism of its wearer. At Carrera y Carrera, we understand that true sophistication emanates from the harmony between tradition and innovation.

Our pieces, crafted with the finest materials, blend the mastery of our artisan jewelers with the exclusivity of our designs. Every detail has been meticulously considered, resulting in authentic works of art that transcend time to become symbols of distinction. For the man who understands that the true essence of elegance lies in authenticity and confidence.

Carrera y Carrera is a historic jewelry house founded in Madrid in 1885, renowned for its sculptural approach to gold and its distinctive design language. Worn in royal courts across the world, its creations carry a legacy of prestige that continues to evolve today.

For more than 140 years, the house has remained closely connected to its founding family, preserving a singular artistic vision shaped by continuity and time.

Each creation is conceived in 18K gold, where depth, volume, and contrast define the form. A mastery of gold shaping gives each piece its presence, while carefully selected gemstones bring intensity and character, reflecting the house's origins in high jewelry.

At the core of its savoir-faire is LIGHTLINE™, a proprietary technique where matte and polished gold interact to reveal light and texture. Each piece is brought to life in Spain by master artisans, guided by precision, patience, and a pursuit of timelessness.

Carrera y Carrera continues to expand its international presence through a curated network of boutiques and partners, affirming its position as a house where heritage and modern expression coexist with clarity and purpose.
