Jewelry with a Mediterranean soul: where art, nature, and craftsmanship meet

Since 1981, we've been creating jewelry with a Mediterranean soul—pieces inspired by art, nature, and the timeless light of our surroundings. Each design is a conversation between tradition and creativity.

The Mediterranean light, the organic forms of nature, and the legacy of artists like Miró, Gaudí, and Dalí all influence our collections. From this inspiration, we craft jewelry that is both contemporary and timeless—jewelry with soul.

Each piece is handcrafted in our workshop near Barcelona using traditional goldsmith techniques and environmentally conscious processes. We work with sterling silver and 24-karat gold or sterling silver-plated brass, to create small-batch collections that celebrate uniqueness and imperfection. Our jewelry speaks to those who appreciate the magic of detail and the authenticity of craftsmanship.

With over 500 points of sale, Joidart pieces travel from Barcelona across Europe, the USA, Japan, Australia, and New Zealand—finding homes in carefully curated spaces that share our love for art and design.

Discover our jewelry where art, nature, and passion come together in every piece.
